Setup UNT VPN access

(Mac OS X 10.6, 10.7, 10.8)
Setup UNT VPN access  (Mac OS X 10.6, 10.7, 10.8)

1. Go to the System Preferences from your Apple Menu

2. Click on the Network preference
Setup UNT VPN access  (Mac OS X 10.6, 10.7, 10.8)

3. Unlock the preference pane if needed and click the plus sign to add a VPN account.

4. Select the VPN option from the pull down menu.
Setup UNT VPN access  (Mac OS X 10.6, 10.7, 10.8)

5. Select the Cisco IPSec option from the new pull down that appears.

6. Enter “UNT VPN” for the Service Name and click the “Create” button.
Setup UNT VPN access  (Mac OS X 10.6, 10.7, 10.8)

7. In the Server Address field enter: vpn.unt.edu
   For the Account Name enter your euid and leave the password field blank

8. Next click the “Authentication Settings..” Button and fill in the Shared Secret field with password: untvpanaccess (case sensitive)
   For the Group name enter: General (case sensitive)
   Click OK when done.
9. Check the Show VPN in menu bar option and click the Apply button. Your setup is now complete and you can quit out of System Preferences.

10. You will now see the VPN icon in your menu bar.
Setup UNT VPN access  (Mac OS X 10.6, 10.7, 10.8)

11. Click the VPN icon and select “Connect UNT VPN” to establish a secure connection back to campus.

12. When prompted enter your euid password and click the OK button.
Setup UNT VPN access  (Mac OS X 10.6, 10.7, 10.8)

Once you are successfully logged in the UNT agreement will come up. Click the OK button and you will be connected. The elapsed time will show next to the VPN icon.
Setup UNT VPN access (Mac OS X 10.6, 10.7, 10.8)

To disconnect from the UNT VPN select “Disconnect UNT VPN”